Officiant

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul:

he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil: for though art with me; thy rod and thy staff,

They comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou annointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:

and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

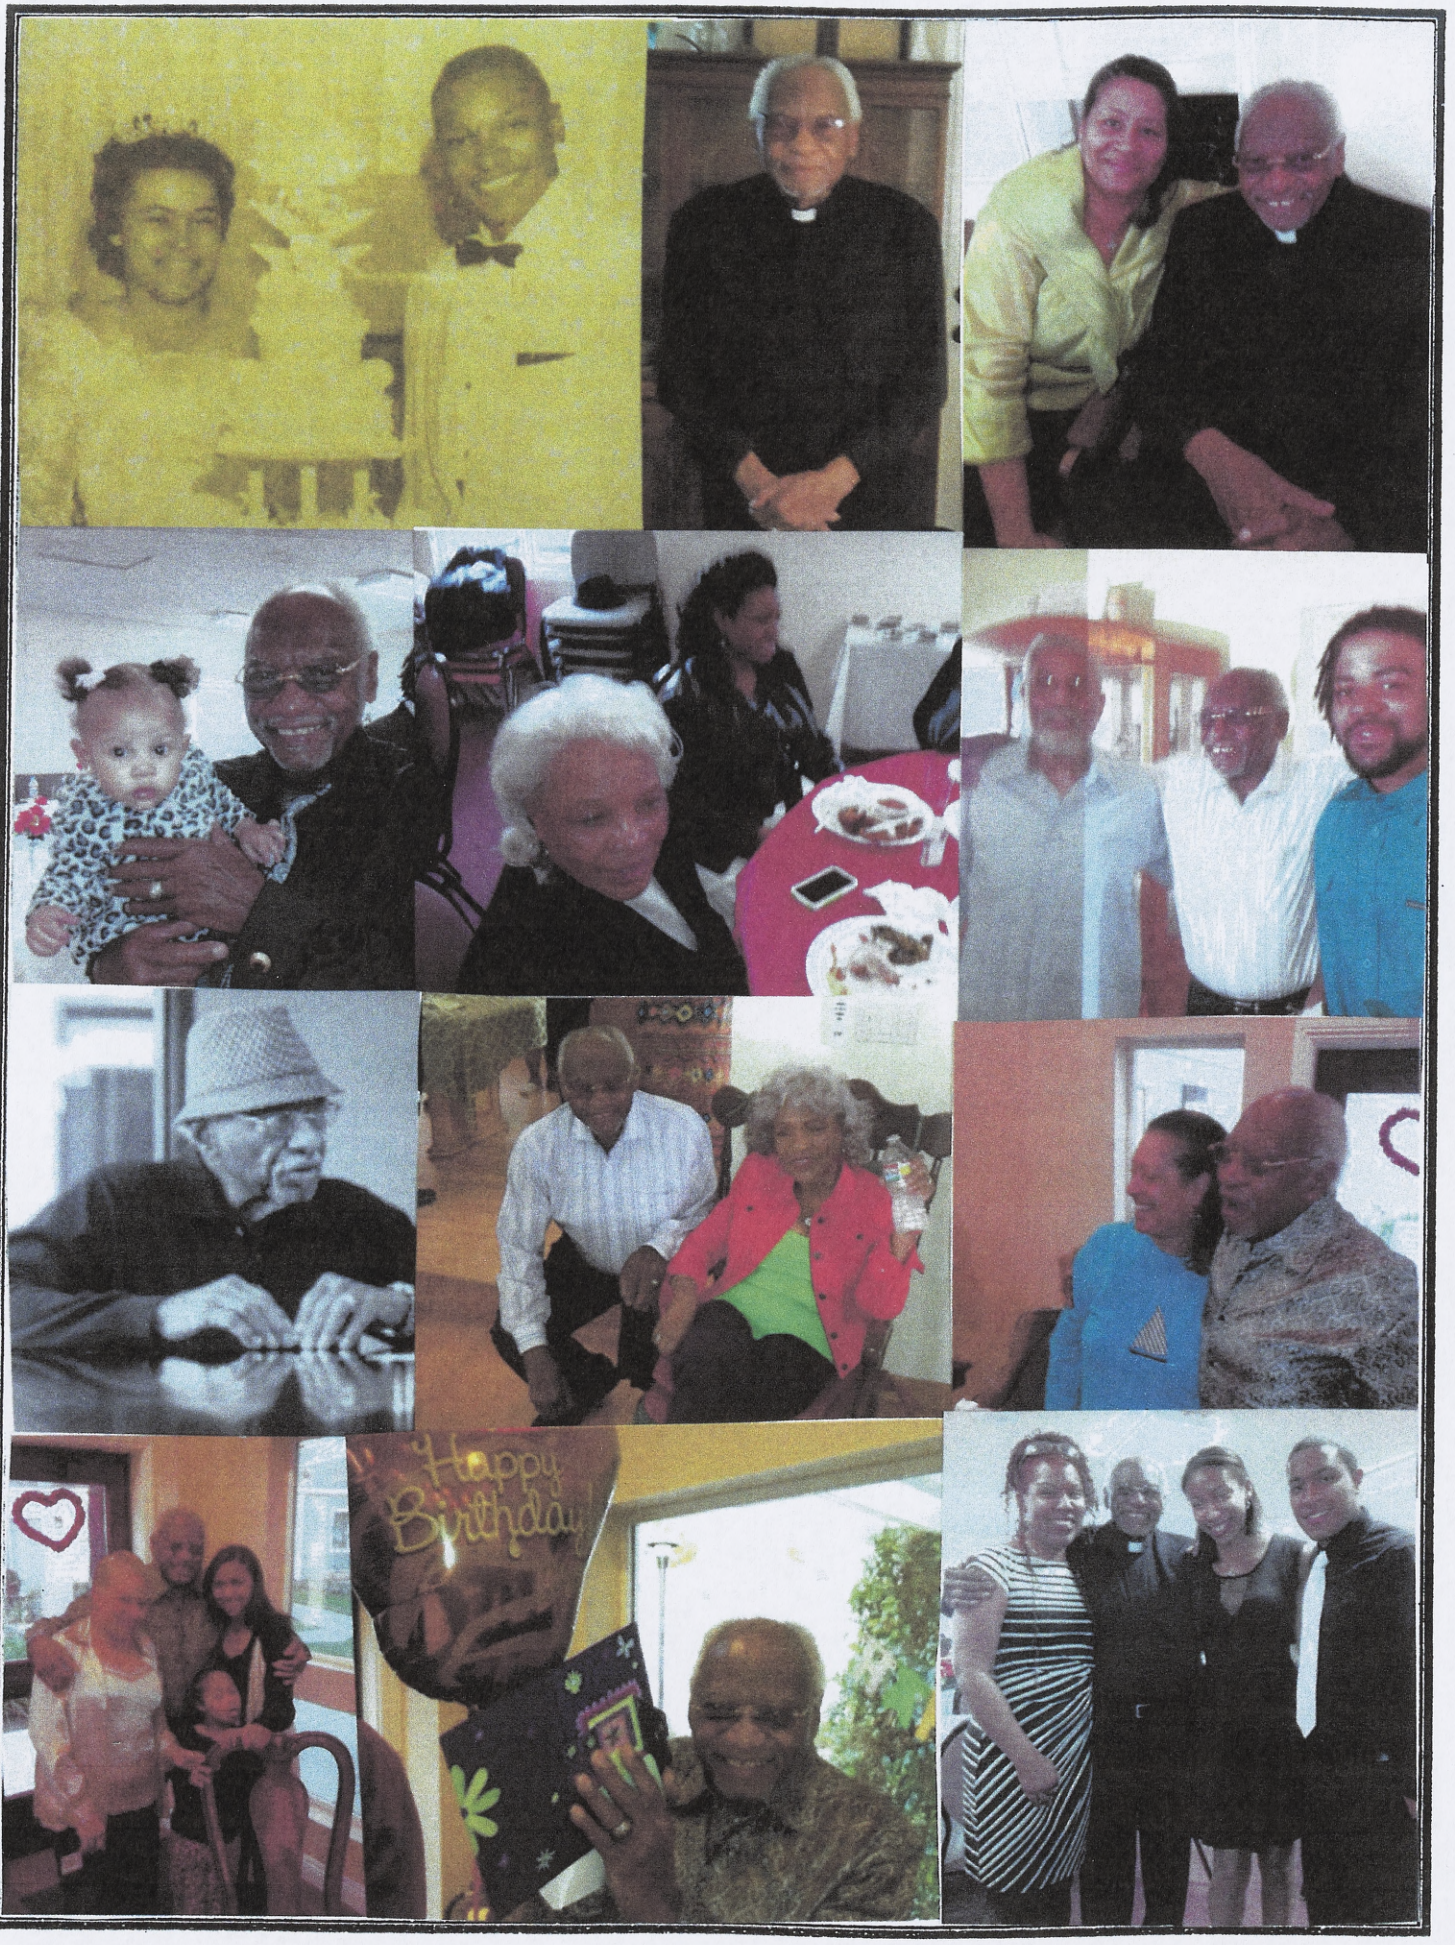
We are celebrating the life of Jesse James wall Sr. Who was born on February 9th, 1933 and went home to be with the lord on January 20th 2018. He was born in Sunflower, MS to James Edward and Solena Wall. He moved to riverside, CA with his family when he was nine years old. He attended Riverside public schools until he went on to receive his Bachelor's degree at Cal State University L.A. He attended several classes and course work through a program that UCLA ,USC, and The University Of Massachusetts called, University of "Walls "to receive his Masters and Doctrines degree.

He was an educator at several schools across Riverside, Pasadena, and L.A county. He served in the U.S Army and was honorably discharged in 1958. Through his life he had great accomplishments; he was the first black male teacher to be hired in Riverside County, the first black man to receive "The man of Year" Jaycee reward from Riverside county. He was a member of NAACP believing in equal rights of all mankind.

He sat on the Riverside City counsel board fighting for what he believed in, and for the people of the community. Pastor Jesse James Wall Sr. was appointed as pastor for the St. James COGIC church which later became St. James Restoration Tabernacle. He was also the Managing General partner for the J.E Wall Manor preceding his father James Edward Wall. Pastor Jesse Wall also helped the homeless and people in need of food supply, shelter and clothing, as well as supporting and helping members of the church and residents at the J.E Wall Manor. He loved his community, church members and family dearly.

Jesse James Wall Sr. was a very loving Father, Uncle and leader, He touched many lives and influenced many people. He leaves behind his three children; Jesse(jay Jay) Wall Jr., Tunya Wall, Charisse "Cherry" Wall, and their mother Beverly 'former wife' and three step children; Lynn,Ramona and Paula and their mother Johnnie,

And his last ceremony with his loving companion Artie Jefferson-Wall. He also leaves behind his grandchildren Tomorrow, Taseanda, Lauren, Jaylen, Paige, and Harrel. Great granddaughter Taliyah and great grandson,Tova.Nieces, Celia, Sara, Andrea and James. And many, many Cousins. Preceding him in death,



Happy Birthday!
